

Use Your Foreign Degree in the United States

Personalized job search and career help for immigrant and refugee professionals

New York State Office for New Americans
Professional Pathways Program

The Professional Pathways Program connects professionally-focused new Americans living in the state of New York with customized job coaching and career training resources to help them start their U.S. careers.

With our help, you will:

- Plan your career pathway
- Build a U.S.-style resume
- Access trainings and courses relevant to your professional path
- Learn how to prepare for a job interview in the U.S.

How do I qualify?

- Have a bachelor's degree from outside of the United States
- Arrived in the U.S. within the last 10 years
- Speak English at an intermediate or advanced level
- Be a resident of New York State
- Must be U.S. work-authorized
